

AirTran and jetBlue New San Juan, Puerto Rico service

Tampa International Airport has captured the attention of two popular airlines – AirTran and jetBlue both providing new daily nonstop, low-cost service from Tampa to San Juan, Puerto Rico.

AirTran’s new double-daily schedule started on April 5th and it is a perfect fit for those people beginning their journey either in Tampa or San Juan. With departures in the mornings and afternoons on both ends, business passengers, vacationers, and people visiting friends and relatives have got excellent new travel choices.

Adding more nonstop flights to the Island of Enchantment is jetBlue Airways, which started on May 4th and quickly added a second daily flight on May 19th. jetBlue now offers two morning daily departures from Tampa to San Juan.
